(Mr. Kan Trakulhoon)

Chairman of the Board of Directors

Advanced Info Service Public Company Limited

Section 1
Board of Directors

1. Leadership and Vision

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) is determined that Advanced Info Service Public Company Limited and its subsidiaries (“Company”) will become the most-admired Digital Life Service Provider in Thailand.

The Board must have leadership skills and clear vision, and demonstrate responsibility, accountability and independence in decision making in order to govern the Company for the greatest benefit of all shareholders.

The Board shall have duties and responsibilities towards the shareholders in monitoring the executives’ performance. Segregation of duties between the Board and the executives shall be clearly defined.

2. Composition of the Board, Appointments and Independence

2.1 The Board shall be composed of experts with a wide range of experience in various fields. There shall be sufficient directors to govern and supervise the Company: not less than five (5) directors (as required by law) and not more than twelve (12) directors (based on the best practice) shall sit on the Board. At least one director shall be experienced in the area of telecommunications, and at least one director shall be experienced in the area of finance and accounting.

2.2 The Board shall promote board diversity in terms of gender, race, ethnicity, country of origin and nationality which can broaden its perceptive and enable it to discharge duties and responsibilities effectively as well as strengthen the decision making process.

2.3 The Board shall be representative of all shareholders, not of a particular group of shareholders.

2.4 At least one-third of the Board and not less than four (4) persons must be independent directors. More than one-half of the Board must be non-executive directors in order to ensure a good balance between executive and non-executive members.

2.5 The Board has a policy whereby the controlling shareholders of the Company are proportionally represented.

2.6 The appointment of members of the Board shall comply with the Company’s articles of association and all relevant laws in Thailand. Selection of the directors shall be transparent and clear, and processed through the Nomination and Governance Committee.

2.7 The Nomination and Governance Committee is responsible for identifying and selecting qualified candidates to be proposed through the Board for election at the shareholders’ meetings or appointed by the Board according to the Company’s articles of association. The Nomination and Governance Committee shall review, on an annual basis, the skill matrix and composition of directors and make recommendations accordingly.

With respect to the nomination of independent directors, the Nomination and Governance Committee shall take female candidate into its consideration.

2.8 In determining whether to recommend a director for re-election, the Nomination and Governance Committee will consider the director’s performance and contribution to the Board.

2.9 To identify director candidates, the Nomination and Governance Committee may use the following sources:

- Recommendations from current board members
- Professional search firm
- Thai Institute of Directors' director pool.

2.10 A director's term of office is defined in the Company's articles of association. A retired director can be re-elected. However, the Board has adopted a general policy that as regards independent directors who have completed a total of nine (9) years or three (3) consecutive terms, the Board shall review their respective independent qualification each year.

3. Chairman of the Board, Chairman of the Executive Committee and Chief Executive Officer

The Chairman of the Board, the Chairman of the Executive Committee and Chief Executive Officer must be competent and have the appropriate experience and qualifications for their positions. In order to maintain a balance between the supervisory and management functions of the Company, one person cannot hold these positions simultaneously.

The Chairman of the Board is a non-executive director, the leader of the Board, and has duties as the chairman of both Board and shareholders' meetings.

The Chairman of the Executive Committee shall be the head and leader of the Company's executives and be responsible to the Board for managing the Company in order to achieve all planned objectives.

Chief Executive Officer reporting to the Executive Committee and the Board shall implement the business strategy approved by the Board and conduct day-to-day business operation of the Company.

4. Qualifications and Requirements for the Board

4.1 A director must be capable and honest, display the utmost integrity, conduct the business ethically, and devote sufficient time to the Company in order to perform his or her duties professionally.

4.2 A director must possess the necessary qualifications for his or her position, and not be disqualified in any way according to the Public Company Act B.E. 2535 (as amended) or other related laws.

4.3 All directors shall allocate sufficient time to prepare for and attend Board and sub-committee meetings. An individual director shall not serve on more than four (4) other boards of publicly listed companies unless the Board grants specific approval.

All independent and non-executive directors shall consult the Chairman of the Board and Chairman of the Nomination and Governance Committee before he/she accepts outside board membership.

4.4 Independent directors shall meet all the qualifications stipulated by the regulatory bodies. Independent directors have a duty to protect the interests of every shareholder in a fair and impartial manner in order to avoid any conflicts of interest that may arise. They shall also attend the Board meetings and express their comments and opinions from an independent viewpoint.

Independent directors must also meet the following requirements:

4.4.1 Holding shares not exceeding 0.5 percent of the total number of voting rights of the Company, its parent company, subsidiary, affiliate or juristic person which may have conflicts of interest, including the shares held by related persons of the independent director.

4.4.2 Neither being nor having been an executive director, employee, staff, or advisor who receives salary, or a controlling person of the Company, its parent company, subsidiaries, affiliates, same-level subsidiaries or juristic persons which may have any conflict of interest. Any audit and risk committee member, who may be appointed on or after 1 July 2010, shall have ended the foregoing relationship not less than two years prior to the date of appointment.

4.4.3 Not having any business relationship with the Company, its parent company, subsidiaries, affiliates or juristic persons, which may have any conflict of interest, in any manner that may interfere with his or her independent judgment, and not be, or used to be, a substantial shareholder or controlling person in its parent company, subsidiaries, affiliates or juristic persons, that may create any conflict of interest. Any audit and risk Committee member, who may be appointed on or after 1 July 2010, shall have ended the foregoing relationship not less than two years prior to the date of appointment.

The term 'Business Relationship' aforementioned under paragraph one, includes any normal business transaction, rental or lease of immovable property, transaction relating to assets or services or grant or receipt of financial assistance through receiving or extending loans, guarantee, providing assets as collateral, including any other similar actions, which result in the Company or its counterparty being subject to indebtedness payable to the other party in the amount of three percent or more of the net tangible assets of the Company or twenty million Baht or more, whichever is lower. The amount of such indebtedness shall be calculated according to the calculation method for value of connected transactions under the Notification of the Capital Market Supervisory Board Re: Rules on Connected Transactions mutatis mutandis. The consideration of such indebtedness shall include indebtedness taking place during the course of one year prior to the date on which the business relationship with the person commences.

4.4.4 Not being a person related by blood or registration under laws, such as in the manner of father, mother, spouse, sibling, and child, including spouse of the children, executives, major shareholders, controlling persons, or persons to be nominated as executive or controlling persons of the Company or its subsidiary.

4.4.5 Not being a director who has been appointed as a representative of the Company's director, major shareholder or shareholders who are related to the Company's major shareholder.

4.4.6 Neither being nor having been an auditor of the Company, its parent company, subsidiaries, affiliates or juristic persons which may have any conflict of interest and not having been a substantial shareholder, controlling person or partner of an audit firm which employs auditors of the Company, its parent company, subsidiaries, affiliates or juristic persons which may have any conflict of interest. Any audit and risk Committee member, who may be appointed on or after 1 July 2010, shall have ended the foregoing relationship not less than two years prior to the date of appointment.

4.4.7 Neither being nor having been any professional advisor including legal advisor or financial advisor who receives an annual service fee exceeding two million Baht from the Company, its parent company, subsidiaries, affiliates or juristic persons which may have any conflict of interest, and not having been a substantial shareholder, controlling person or partner of the professional advisor. Any audit and risk Committee member who may be appointed on or after 1 July 2010, shall have ended the foregoing relationship not less than two years prior to the date of appointment.

4.4.8 Not conducting any business of the same nature as the Company's or its subsidiaries' businesses and is in competition with them in any material respect, nor being a substantial partner, shareholder holding more than one (1) percent of the voting shares, director (having management role), employee, officer or advisor (obtaining a regular salary) of any company whose business is of the same nature as the Company's or its subsidiaries' businesses, and is in competition with them in any material respect.

4.4.9 Not having any other manners, which may render him or her incapable of expressing independent opinions with regard to the Company's business affairs.

4.5 After having been appointed as an independent director with qualifications complying with the criteria under 4.4.1 to 4.4.9, the independent director may be assigned by the Board to take part in the business decisions of the Company, its parent company, subsidiaries, affiliates, same – level subsidiaries or juristic persons which may have any conflict of interest, on condition that these decisions must be collective ones. *

4.6 The Company may appoint a person who has a business relationship or provides a professional service described in Item Nos. 4.4.3 or 4.4.7 above if the Board carefully considers the business relationship of service provided and concludes that the appointment will not interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in the independent director's responsibilities. The Company must disclose the following information in the item regarding the appointment of independent directors on the agenda of the shareholders' meeting.

4.6.1 The nature of the business relationship or professional service that excludes the nominated independent director from the standard requirements;

4.6.2 The reason or need to retain or appoint this person as an independent director;

4.6.3 The Board's opinion on proposing the appointment of this person as an independent director. *

5. Major Responsibilities and Scope of Duties of the Board

5.1 Perform its duties with honesty, integrity and prudence in accordance with the law and the Company's objectives and articles of association including the resolutions of shareholders' meetings, and carefully protect the Company's interests.

5.2 Set out the vision, policy and direction of the Company's operations and supervise the management team to act in accordance with plans which are set out efficiently and effectively and thereby maximize the economic value and wealth of the Company and its shareholders.

5.3 Consider and approve major issues such as large investments, policy, management authority, and any transactions as prescribed by law.

5.4 Approve or agree to all major related transactions between the Company and its subsidiaries in compliance with the relevant notifications, regulations and guidelines of the Stock Exchange of Thailand (the "SET").

5.5 Assess the performance of the Chief Executive Officer and the executive directors, and fix appropriate remuneration on a regular basis.

5.6 Be responsible for overseeing operational results and the management team's performance to ensure due attentiveness and care.

5.7 Arrange appropriate accounting systems, including the production of financial reports and a reliable auditing system; oversee and monitor the effectiveness and efficiency of the internal control, internal audit and risk management systems.

5.8 Ensure avoidance of any conflict of interest amongst the Company's stakeholders.

5.9 Supervise business operations to enforce ethical work standards.

5.10 Annually review the Company's corporate governance policy and assess due compliance.

5.11 Report on the execution of the Board's responsibility to prepare financial reports, along with the external auditor's report in the annual report covering key issues according to the Company's policy statement and the Stock Exchange of Thailand's Code of Best Practices for Directors of a Listed Company.

6. Sub-Committees

The following sub-committees shall be set up to relieve the workload of the Board:

6.1 Audit and Risk Committee

The Audit and Risk Committee shall be a part of the Board and be appointed by the Board. The Audit and Risk Committee shall be composed of at least three (3) independent directors with at least one (1) person having knowledge of accounting or finance and at least one (1) person having knowledge and experience of risk management so as to review the reliability of financial statements and the risk profile, appetite and tolerance. 6.2.7 Disclose policies governing the directors' remuneration in the annual report.

6.2.8 In consultation with the Company's CEO, identify and evaluate potential successors for the Company's CEO positions and those high level executives who report directly to CEO, and report annually to the Board on executive succession planning.

6.2.9 In consultation with the Company's CEO, prepare succession planning policies for the Company's CEO positions and those high level executives who report directly to CEO.

6.2.10 Oversee the processes by which the CEO and high level executive are evaluated.

6.3 Nomination and Governance Committee

The Nomination and Governance Committee shall be composed of at least three (3) directors and more than one-half of the Nomination and Governance committee must be non-executive directors.

The authority of the Nomination and Governance Committee and its scope of duties are as follows:

6.3.1 Draw up criteria and policy with respect to nomination of Board members and committees members of the Company;

6.3.2 Supervise implementation of the policy on good corporate governance of the Company, annually review such policy including recommendation of any revision thereof for further consideration by the Board;

6.3.3 Consider and nominate appropriate persons to become Board members and/or committees members to be proposed to and approved by the Board and/or shareholders' meeting, as the case may be;

6.3.4 Perform other tasks as designated by the Board.

6.4 Executive Committee

The Executive Committee shall be composed of the Chairman of the Executive Committee and directors or any other persons with appropriate qualifications as approved by the Board.

The Board shall delegate the following authority and scope of duties to the Executive Committee:

6.4.1 Formulate the Company's strategic direction, management structure, and annual business plan and budget for the Board's approval;

6.4.2 Manage the Company's business operations in order to achieve the planned objectives and targets;

6.4.3 Monitor the Company's financial and operating results, and keep the Board members informed by monthly report;

6.4.4 Identify and evaluate new business opportunities;

6.4.5 Review and make recommendations to the Board regarding the Company's dividend policy;

6.4.6 Review and approve all transactions concerning investments and disposal of assets, human resource management, finance and treasury, general administration and any other transaction related to the Company's business within the limits of authorization granted by the Board;

6.4.7 Review matters that require the Board's approval and make appropriate recommendations with the exception of activities that have been delegated to other board committees;

6.4.8 The Committee may delegate its authority to any member of the management or staff as it deems appropriate. However, such authority does not permit the Committee or appointed persons to approve any transaction between them or related persons having mutual benefits or conflicts of interest (as prescribed in the Company's articles of association and Notifications of the Securities Exchange Commission). The approval for transactions shall be in accordance with the policies and principles already determined by the Board and regulatory bodies;

6.4.9 Report to the Board on a quarterly basis regarding the material actions taken by the Committee under the Chairman of the Executive Committee Report agenda;

6.4.10 Annually review its own performance and assess the adequacy of its charter, which may be done in conjunction with the annual evaluation of the Board and its other committees, conducted under the oversight of the Nomination and Governance Committee; and

6.4.11 Take any other action or assume any other powers and responsibilities that may from time to time be assigned or delegated to the Committee by the Board.

6.5 Sustainability Development Committee

The Sustainability Development Committee shall be composed of at least three (3) directors and more than one-half of the Sustainability Development Committee must be non-executive directors.

The authority of the Sustainability Development Committee and its scope of duties are as follows:

6.5.1 Define policy, strategy, operating target, and sufficient budget including any other relevant action in connection with sustainability development and propose to the Board for approval.

6.5.2 Propose any material issue of the Company in connection with sustainability development to the Board for consideration.

6.5.3 Ensure that the implementation of sustainability development policy and strategy meets the target.

6.5.4 Advise and assist CEO concerning the sustainability development operation.

6.5.5 Report the sustainability development performance to the Board.

6.5.6 Review the sustainability development report and propose to the Board for approval.

6.5.7 To perform other duties as assigned by the Board.

7 Board Meetings

The Board shall meet at least six (6) times a year according to the prearranged annual schedule. Extraordinary meetings are allowed if they are required. In preparation for a meeting, the Chairman of the Board or the Vice-Chairman of the Board shall peruse and agree to all the items on the meeting's agenda. The Chairman of the Board shall be responsible for delivering the relevant documents and notification of each meeting to Board members not less than seven (7) days before the meeting is scheduled, in order to allow adequate time for Board members to prepare.

The Board expects each director to make a reasonable effort to attend all meetings of the Board and sub-committees on which they serve. Although the Board recognizes that, on occasion, circumstances may prevent directors from attending meetings, they are expected to ensure that other commitments do not materially interfere with the performance of their duties. All directors are expected to attend a minimum of 75% of regularly scheduled board and committee meeting either physically or via video/telephone conference.

The Chairman of the Board shall preside over the meetings, be responsible for monitoring the proceedings, and allocate sufficient time to each item on the agenda for the directors to discuss, express their opinions independently, and represent all the shareholders and interested persons equally. The relevant members of the management team are also required to provide the necessary information for consideration of important matters.

Company Secretary is responsible for supporting the Board of Directors, coordinating between the Board and the management, publishing and circulating of Board minutes within fourteen (14) days after each meeting. He/she is responsible for filing the minutes and directors' personal information. In addition, he/she is also responsible for assisting the Board to perform their duties as required by law, the Company's articles of association, and the resolutions of shareholders' meetings, promoting the good corporate governance and being a contact center for investor, as well as performing other tasks as stipulated by laws.

8 Non-Executive Directors Sessions

The non-executive directors shall conduct meetings without the presence of executive directors at least once a year. This is to give an opportunity to discuss any subjects of interest related to the business operations of the Company.

The Chairman of the Board shall preside over these non-executive director sessions. If the Chairman of the Board is unable to attend, the directors who are present shall select and appoint one of their members to chair the meeting. The Company shall arrange for a secretary of the meeting.

9 Succession Plan

A succession plan for the Company's Chief Executive Officer and senior executives shall be developed in order to maintain the confidence of shareholders and stakeholders and allow business operations to continue without interruption when these positions become vacant.

The Board has authorized the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee to set up succession planning criteria for senior executives and nominate the new Chief Executive Officer whenever this position becomes vacant. The succession plan shall be reviewed annually and the Chairman of the Leadership Development and Compensation Committee shall update the Board on a regularly basis.

10 Communication with Management

The directors shall be allowed to access and communicate directly with the management team, the Secretary to the Board and the Company Secretary. However, this access and communication should not interfere with or interrupt the Company's normal business operations.

11 Remuneration

The remuneration for the Company's directors and executives shall be in line with their duties, responsibilities and contribution, and be comparable to industry standards in order to retain and motivate qualified people. The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee shall consider and propose adequate and appropriate remuneration to the Board and/or shareholders on an annual basis for their approval.

12 Training and Development

A newly-appointed director shall be provided with all necessary details about the Company, applicable laws and regulations, and information on the current business environment in order to facilitate his or her duties. A continual training and development program will also be provided to equip each new director with all the necessary skills required to discharge his or her duties and govern the Company efficiently.

13 Board Assessment

A formal performance evaluation of the Board as a whole, its sub-committees and the individual directors shall be conducted annually. The results shall be used as a basis for strengthening the effectiveness of the Board and developing its members. The Board shall engage an external consultant to conduct an independent evaluation of itself at least once every three (3) years.

Section 2
Rights and Equitable Treatment of Shareholders, and the Role to Stakeholders

1. Shareholders' Rights and Equitable Treatment

The Board respects the shareholders' rights and has a duty to protect the benefits of every shareholder equitably, regardless of whether they are institutional, retail, local, or foreign. Every shareholder is entitled to the rights and equitable treatment detailed below:

- 1) The right to receive share certificates and share transfers, and to be sufficiently informed of operating results and management policies on a timely basis.
- 2) The right to an equitable dividend.
- 3) The right to participate in meeting, to vote, and to make recommendations on decisions concerning major corporate actions.
- 4) The right to elect directors.

In addition to the above rights, every shareholder is entitled to the rights and equitable treatment stipulated in the Company's articles of association and all relevant laws.

2. Shareholders' Meetings

The Company has a policy to conduct shareholders' meetings according to the laws and guidelines prescribed by the regulatory bodies.

In each shareholder's meeting, every shareholder has the right to give his or her opinion and query any of the information presented which is relevant to the agenda and the issues being discussed. The chairman of the meeting shall allocate an appropriate period of time for each item on the agenda and encourage all attendees to participate in the discussion and express their opinions.

The Company invites shareholders to propose agenda item in advance and to nominate the qualified person as the Company's director on its Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. The Company will announce the criteria for shareholder to propose agenda, channel for submitting proposals and consideration procedures to the Stock Exchange of Thailand and on the Company's website, in accordance with the principle of good corporate policy relating to the promoting of shareholders' right.

At each shareholder's meeting, the Company shall serve a notice, once completely prepared, or posed visibly on the Company website at <http://investor.ais.co.th> not less than fourteen (14) days in advance, so the shareholders shall have access to information prior to the meeting. Each agenda shall contain opinion by the Board of Directors and the minutes of the meeting shall be accurately recorded for review by shareholders.

The notice contains detail informing shareholders to bring all necessary documents to each meeting so as to preserve their voting rights. On the day of the meeting, shareholders can register their right 2 hours before the meeting commences.

In each meeting, at least one independent director shall be appointed as a proxy for shareholders who cannot attend the meeting, and every party shall be informed beforehand in the notification of the meeting. Every shareholder shall have the right to vote separately for each item on the agenda. The Board shall not aggregate irrelevant matters and request approval in one resolution.

It is the duty of all directors to attend every shareholder's meeting in order to answer any queries the shareholders might have.

3. Communication with Stakeholders

The Company is aware of the rights of stakeholders who may wish to offer in writing any suggestions, report unfair treatment, illegal acts, or any activity that infringes the Company's Business Ethics, to the Company Secretary at the following address:

Advanced Info Service Public Company Limited
Company Secretary Office
414, 28th Floor, AIS Tower 1,
Phaholyothin Road, Samsen Nai,
Phayathai, Bangkok 10400
or email at companysecretary@ais.co.th

All suggestions, complaints or reports shall be forwarded to the related parties and all actions taken reported to the Board of Directors.

4. Role to Stakeholders

The Company is aware of the rights of stakeholders and has a policy to ensure the importance of these rights by the appropriate prioritization of all stakeholders as follows: shareholders, employees, executives, customers, partners, creditors, and society. Cooperation between stakeholders shall be established according to their roles and responsibilities so that the Company can run its operations smoothly and effectively in order to benefit all groups of stakeholders fairly.

Section 3

Disclosure of Information and Transparency

Roles and Duties of the Board regarding Information Disclosure and Transparency

1. It is the duty of the Board to disclose financial information, operating performance, and other relevant information accurately, completely, thoroughly and in a timely manner to all shareholders and stakeholders in the Company.
2. There shall be an investor relations unit to represent the Company and communicate useful information to shareholders, investors, securities analysts, and other concerned parties.
3. The Company has a policy to disclose the following information to the public:
 - 3.1 The Company's objectives;
 - 3.2 The Company's financial status and operating performance, shareholding structure, and voting rights;
 - 3.3 Name lists of directors and sub-committee members, Chairman of Executive Committee, Chief Executive Officer and directors' remunerations;
 - 3.4 Risk factors and risk management policies on material and foreseeable risks, both operational and financial;
 - 3.5 Corporate governance structures and policies including the responsibility of the Board regarding financial reports, the reports of the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee, and all other related reports;
 - 3.6 The total attendance of each director and/or each sub-committee member at their respective meetings shall be compared with the total number of meetings of the Board and/or the sub-committees in each year and shall be disclosed in the annual report.

In addition, the Company is under obligation to disclose any information that is required by law or related regulations.

Section 4

Internal Control and Risk Management Systems

1. Internal Control

The Board shall arrange and maintain the Company's internal control system in order to safeguard the shareholders' investment capital and the Company's assets.

It is the Board's duty to review the efficiency of the internal control system at least once a year and report its performance to the shareholders. The review shall cover all matters pertaining to financial controls, operational controls, compliance controls and risk management.

2. Internal Audit

There shall be an internal audit unit, reporting functionally and directly to the Audit and Risk Committee, and administratively to the highest level of management. The internal audit unit's responsibilities are to cover consulting services, and to audit and evaluate the internal control system, the risk management system and the corporate governance system.

3. Risk Management

There shall be a policy to manage both internal and external risk factors affecting the Company at an appropriate and acceptable level. There shall be an audit and risk committee, consisting only of independent directors. The duties of the Audit and Risk Committee are to evaluate and review the results of risk assessment in each department and review the risk management plan and policy for the Board's approval at least once a year.

Risk management is a part of the Company's annual business plan process and is aligned with its objectives, goals, and strategic plan of the Company. As the risk owners, management and all staff members shall be responsible for assessing the risks related to their respective departments and business processes, so as to evaluate the effectiveness of existing controls, and propose action plans for mitigating the risks as well as reporting them to the Audit and Risk Committee and the Board.

Section 5

Code of Business Ethics

The Company expects its joint venture companies to comply with the Code of Business Ethics in all material respects in the same manner as its subsidiaries.

1. Stakeholder Recognition

The Company recognizes the rights and equality of all stakeholders then sets out our practice guidelines in connection with the stakeholders according to the law and sustainability coexistence as follows:

1.1. Responsibility to Shareholders

The Company acts as a representative to its shareholders in carrying out the business in order to maximize shareholder satisfaction with regards to sustainable growth of the Company's value in the long term future, and the disclosure of transparent and reliable information to its shareholders.

1.2. Responsibility to Customers

Customer satisfaction and consumer confidence are very important to the Company, which aims to provide high quality goods and services at reasonable prices, and maintain a good relationship with its customers. The Company has thus determined the following guidelines:

- The Company shall provide high quality products and services, and continuously strive to improve these. The Company shall also provide complete and accurate disclosure of all information pertaining to its products and services without any misrepresentation.
- Directors, management, and staff members at all levels shall not disclose any information on customers without prior permission from those customers or authorized personnel of the Company. The only exception to this is information requested by law enforcement officers acting in accordance with the law.

1.3. Responsibility to Business Partners and Creditors

The Company's dealings with any business partner shall be conducted in a manner that upholds its reputation and all relevant laws. All Company personnel must be aware of the common interests of the Company's business partners and treat them equitably. The selection of business partners shall be fair. The Company shall also consider its business partners to be the key factor in jointly creating a value chain for customers.

The Company shall keep all its promises and perform in accordance with the terms and conditions agreed with its creditors for the repayment of principal and interest, as well as safeguarding all guaranteed assets.

1.4. Responsibility to Staff

All members of staff are valuable assets and a critical success factor, so the Company must place emphasis on developing and promoting a good culture and working atmosphere, teamwork, courtesy, and respect for individuality. The employment, promotion and transfer of all staff members shall be conducted in a fair manner based on ethical standards whilst maximizing human resource utilization.

The Company is responsible for implementing and maintaining a safe working environment to protect the lives and property of its employees. The Company must also adhere strictly to the labor law.

The Company respects the privacy of all its staff members and will not disclose any personal information such as salaries, medical records or family data to anyone who does not have the right to that information unless it is required to do so by law.

1.5. Business Competition

The Company has a policy of free and fair competition, and will not acquire information about its competitors by any illegal or unethical methods.

1.6. Responsibility to Society and Environment

The Company is aware that it is a Thai company and has a responsibility to Thailand and Thai society. The Company is committed to making a contribution to society by supporting activities of public interest and cooperating with the communities in which those activities are located.
